

Name: _____ Date: _____

Exploring Literature – FINAL REVIEW Test Date: 05/21/24

Textbook MUST be turned in on day of exam

Define the following:

1. Resolute
2. Disheveled
3. Irreverent
4. Limber
5. Chaste
6. Frenzy
7. Barbaric
8. Inanimate
9. Devise
10. Meager
11. Plot
12. Imagery
13. Voice
14. Personification
15. Foreshadowing
16. Dramatic Irony
17. Allusion
18. Dialogue
19. Symbol
20. Suspense

Write 5 facts about each author or character using the bio in the textbook:

1. Daniel Cohen
2. Edgar Allen Poe
3. Jon Krakauer
4. Lorraine Hansbury
5. Maya Angelou
6. Etheridge Knight
7. Helen Keller
8. Romeo
9. John Henry
10. Natasha Trethewey
11. Dee
12. Barack Obama
13. Tonton Jean

14. Prometheus

15. Walter

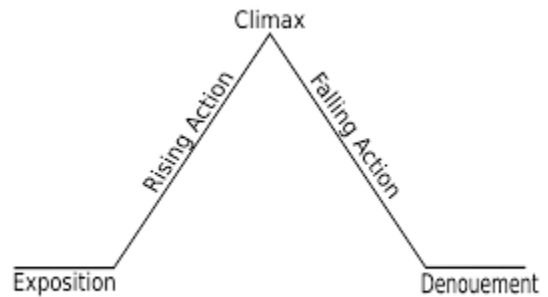

Write a brief description of the following selections:

1. "Oranges"
2. Gather Together In My Name
3. "Demeter and Persephone"
4. Kon-Tiki
5. "Life and Adventures of Calamity Jane, By Herself"
6. Rome and Juliet
7. "The Streets of Laredo"
8. "The Lottery"
9. "Writer's Realm"
10. "The Dog and His Reflection"

Define and give an example of:

1. Alliteration
2. Onomatopoeia
3. Simile
4. Metaphor
5. Types of conflict
6. Autobiography
7. Ballad
8. Biography
9. Comedy
10. Diary
11. Essay
12. Fable
13. Haiku
14. Legend
15. Myth
16. Speech
17. Poetry
18. Short Story
19. Tall Tale
20. Tragedy

Define the diagram:

Use the words above to label examples of each part of the plot.

_____ The boy wants to thank Mrs. Luella Bates Washington Jones but cannot in “Thank You, Ma’am”.

_____ The lover goes to the door on the right and opens it in “The Lady, or the Tiger?”

_____ The young boys gather stones in “The Lottery”.

_____ The narrator returns home after Eugene’s mother does not let her see Eugene in “American History”.

_____ Dee comes out with two quilts that she wants in “Everyday Use”.

1. What is a protagonist and give an example from the book.
2. Explain what makes a drama different from other genres of literature.
3. Explain the difference between fiction and nonfiction.
4. What is point of view? Give an example of one type of point of view.
5. Explain the difference between tone and mood.
6. Explain which genre of literature your favorite is to read using examples from the genre.
7. How does setting the tone or mood affect a work?
8. After reading the whole text, what do you think is a common theme about human beings that runs through many of the works? Explain how this theme is shown in multiple works.
9. How does an author create a well-developed character? Explain using examples of some characters you feel are most memorable.